Names and Addresses, if registered through these Agencies, are counted and charged as ONE word only. No charge is made for this registration.

The charge for the first word also covers cost of transmission by Telegraph of the place from which the Message is sent, date, and time of despatch.

A special feature of these agencies consists in telegraphing the number of words in each despatch.

It will greatly facilitate business if the registered number is placed upon Messages before being handed in for transmission.

Extracts from the Oriental Telegram Company's Rules.

Rule 3.—Implicit Secrecy is to be observed with regard to Messages, not only as to their contents, but not information is to be given as to whether any person or firm has or has not sent a message.

Rule 4.—Complaints of error, delay, or of any other nature, should be made by the person forwarding the message. The Receiving Agent cannot give any information on the subject, and should be very careful not to speculate upon the causes of delays, &c.

Rule 9.—Every message must be signed by the sender.

Rule 10.—All messages are to be prepaid to their destination.

Rule 34.—In the event of doubt arising as to the correctness of a message, the Cable Company may be prevailed upon to repeat it; but the Rules of the Cable Company must be regarded in this matter, and the message cannot be rectified at the expense of the Oriental Agency.

The system adopted exclusively by these Companies insures a degree of accuracy in the transmission of telegrams acknowledged by the chief Cable Companies never to have been attained by any other agency.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that Messrs Lamas and Co. are definitely installed by the Head Office, London, as Agents of the above Telegraphic Agency, in the River Plate.

Merchants, bankers and others are invited to register their names without delay. Registration gratis, after which the names and addresses of firms and their correspondents count as ONE word only.

FEMININE BEAUTY CONSISTS IN THE HAIR.—A thin, coarse, and dry head of hair is incompatible with beauty, and it becomes the duty of any lady, desirous of preserving her charms, to enhance them by the good appearance of her hair, rendering it enduring, so as to effectually guard against having to appear at a great disadvantage in public, which impair other perfections, or else to have recourse to fals. hair either in switches or a wig, it being impossible to adapt neither to the natural appearance, and which present many inconveniences. In autumn leaves, woman is stripped of all her beauty by the fall of her hair. Avoid, therefore, these direful consequences, by the timely use of the Oriental Tonic vigor and beauty to those waving tresses crowning the masterpieces of Naturo, ..cj—nov 3

The French packet Senegal has brought Rio Janeyro papers with telegrams from London and Paris to October 26th.

ENGLAND.

Advices from Bengal announce the famine over, the supply of cereals being now sufficient for the population. Nana-Sahib, of sanguinary notoriety in the Indian Mutiny, has been at last captured at Gwalior, after evading pursuit for 17 years.

Dorregaray is expected in London, to confer with General Cabrera about the Carlist war. It is quite certain here that the Carlists have succeeded in effecting a loan in Paris.

Dreadful storms have swept the English and Scotch coasts: 3 large vessels have been lost on the coast of Scotland, besides a multitude of fishing boats.

The Brazilian ironclad Independencia has been again surveyed, and must be re-docked to effect the repairs, which will take at least 6 months. The Brazilian Minister has paid the money demanded by the builders.

It is rumoured the Government of the Argentine Republic is trying to negotiate a loan. The next steamer from Brazil is anxiously expected with news of the Buenos Ayres revolution.

FRANCE.

The result of the departamental elections has given only 35 out of the 86 departments to the Republicans, viz.—

Bourbons won	36
Bonapartists do	15
Republicans	35

The workmen of Seine et Oise made a demonstration in favor of the Conservative deputy to the Assembly. Some deputies have already arrived in Paris. It is believed MacMahon's message to the Assembly will insist on the Constitutional laws.

The French Masonic lodges agree to hold a conference in Sept. 1875 at Lausanne, for devising means to make the effects of war less disastrous.

Dorregaray arrived on Oct. 24th, en route for London.

The Spanish Ambassador asked MacMahon to order him to leave France. He has been simply ordered not to stay at Bayonne.

The military correspondents of other countries who assisted at the Autumn manœuvres speak most highly of the improved condition of the French army.

An alliance is rumored between France and Russia, based on the annexation of Turkey by Russia.

Thiers is expected in Paris on the 29th to preside over a meeting of Deputies who regard him as their leader.

The deficit this year in indirect contributions will not exceed 25 millions, say one million sterling.

The amount of loan raised by Don Carlos is not stated.

GERMANY

The Minister of Marine is actively equipping vessels at Kiel, with orders for the Pacific. The United States Government has taken umbrage at the affair in the Navigators' Islands, where the commander of a German war-steamer forcibly exacted an indemnity from the islanders. Pres. Grant telegraphed to San Francisco and despatched an American corvette to the scene of difficulty. Some attention was caused at New York by a rumor that the German Government was actually in treaty with Mexico for the purchase of some territory along the coast, with the view to establish a colonial station.

Berlin telegrams assert that Prince Bismarck now desists from the idea of an intervention in Spain, seeing it meets with such opposition from the rest of Europe.

ITALY.

Thiers was well received in the north of Italy, but seems to have returned to France by request of the Italian Government. He said everywhere that the French Republic would always be the best friend of Italy. The Liberal candidates put in their programs the reforms advised by Thiers. The Catholic party have a great majority in the south. The Italia says Cardinal Antonelli promises to recognise Serrano's Government in Spain.

SPAIN

The Carlists have cut off the water-supply of Pamplona and thrown up trenches. They are also besieging Puycerda again. The Madrid people call for the removal of Gen. Laserna, but nobody has confidence in Morriones or Gandara to succeed him. It is hoped Marshal Serrano will take the field in person.

The dissensions in the Cabinet will probably disappear if Castelar resume his post at Madrid. It is still rumored the elections will be ordered in January to form a Cortes.

The Finance Minister refused the proposal of the unfortunate English bond-holders.

It is not true that the Guipuzcoa divisions of Carlists laid down their arms.

Nor that the Carlists shot another newspaper correspondent. It seems, however, that they shot a Spanish Republican who used to write letters to London and American papers.

General Espartero is beyond recovery.

Fighting goes on (26th) around Pamplona.

Two more German war-vessels are expected, to see about the neutrality of the river Bidassoa.

Admiral Topete was appointed to the Mediterranean, but has been struck with paralysis, and is dying.

The Alfonsist organs say the elections will shortly proclaim Queen Isabella's son King of Spain.

General Pavia is under court-martial, at his own request.

In Dorregaray's absence the Carlists are commanded by General Mendiri, who attacked Laserna's position on the 21st.

The Government papers say that Don Carlos has dismissed Dorregaray for a reverse suffered by him in Navarre. Marshal Serrano has offered him the grade of Brigadier General if he will change sides.

The Iberia says the Government is calling out 4 more battalions, and has now 150,000 men in the field. Another Madrid paper says, that including even the Carlists there are not 150,000 men under arms altogether.

Latest advices say, that Elio is the new Carlist General, with Mendici next in command; adding that Elio's plan of the new campaign has been approved by Don Carlos.

TURKEY.

The Montenegrin forces have been cut to pieces at Podgouza by the Turkish troops.

UNITED STATES.

Another revolution has broken out at New Orleans, October 22nd, between whites and blacks, with the object of again deposing Governor Kellogg. The Governor, however, was supported by Federal troops and arrested 69 merchants, besides others of less note.

The United States Government will interfere in the matter of Navigators' Islands and Germany; a war-steamer has been despatched to the Islands.

BRAZIL

FRESH TROUBLES AT PARA

Para, Oct. 22nd

The Diario de Belem publishes a fresh outrage at Charapuca. A body of pretended policemen broke into the house of a Portuguese, and barbarously ill-treated his wife. The Portuguese Consul waited on the President, asking him to take some measures to protect the lives and properties of Portuguese residents, but up to the present no troops have been sent, nor any other measures taken. The citizens of Para cry out loudly against these crimes.

Para, Oct. 24th.

The Tribuna published a bulletin yesterday which has caused great sention. It says a circular was sent as if signed by the editors and by Canon Mendez, to exterminate the Portuguese; and after publishing the whole proclamation says it is a lie, and an invention of the enemy, including one of the authorities. The bulletin has caused an uneasy feeling, because nobody knew of such a proclamation before.

Rio Grande, Oct. 23rd.

Col. Mesquita has been put in command of the Garrison of this city. The telegraph poles have been blown down by storm between Rio Grande and Yaguaron. Telegrams for the River Plate and Chile are detained here till a steamer arrive to take them to Montevideo.

TERRIBLE GUNPOWDER EXPOSION IN LONDON.

A terrible explosion occurred yesterday morning at Regent's-park, spreading devastation for many miles around. The facts are that a convoy of five canal barges was being drawn along the Regent's Canal by a steam-tug, when a quantity of gunpowder on board third barge exploded, sinking that one barge, damaging the next one, and at the same moment impelling the atmosphere into one great wave of destruction, that spread fully three miles from its original centre before its force was wholly expended. Where the accident occurred the canal is not more than fifty feet in width.

On each side of the canal are banks sloping for a considerable distance from the summit to the level of the canal, and thickly clad with trees.

"This dip saved London." These were the words of a gentleman, no mean authority on explosives.

At about three o'clock in the morning the line of five barges left the City Basin of the Grand Junction Canal Company, at Wharf-road, City-road, drawn by the steam-tug Ready, Capt. W. Hardy.

Slowly along the canal through densely populated parts of London, where there is no 'dip,' and where, if the powder had gone off thousands of lives might have been sacrificed, and thousands of houses not merely shattered, but as completely wrecked as if a mine had been sprung in the midst of the streets. Away through the crowded and sleeping city the barges glided noiselessly along, each carrying its cargo, each tended by its two men and its captain. On No. 4 a small quantity of powder was stored, and No. 4, curiously enough, was the only other barge that went to the bottom with No. 3. On they went into the dewy glades of the Regent's-park, unnoticed, perhaps, except by policemen on their beat and the night-watchmen of the park, to whom such familiar objects in the aspect of London by night would scarcely appear as matters of sufficient interest to deserve a passing thought. Had the explosion taken place opposite the Zoological Gardens, the dens might have been demolished, and such of the animals as escaped with their lives have been at liberty to roam over London.

Scarcely more than a hundred yards beyond the confines of the Zoological Gardens, in the heart of 'the dip,' the barge No. 3 exploded with terrific effect. At five minutes to five o'clock, after one tremendous shock, a scene of complete wreck presented itself. No. 3 barge had disappeared; fragments of her wreck were falling some thousand yards away; her men were dead at the bottom of the canal. Along both sides of the canal, for about a hundred yards north and south of the bridge, the ground was swept bare, walls and fences were overthrown, telegraph poles broken, oak and elm trees stripped of branches and foliage. In Sussex-place, where the houses were shaken and windows broken, an elderly lady died of fright. In the Zoological Gardens the monkey house and others were shattered. But it was on the opposite or town side that the explosion told most disastrously. There, from the edge of the canal, where huge masses of earth were thrown up, with fragments of masonry. Sides of houses were driven out, the roofs blown off, the furniture absolutely driven out of one room into another, and yet in each instance the inmates escaped uninjured. In one case six persons and in the other thirteen rushed out of ruined houses, wearing nothing but their night dresses, all along Lancaster-terrace, thinking, some of them, that an earthquake had shaken London to its centre, others imagining that a railway collision had occurred on some adjacent line. Far away beyond Chalk Farm, over Hampstead, Kilburn, and for fully three miles from the centre of the disaster, the shock was felt.

An artist who had ascended Primrose-hill to see the sun rise over London says:—"Standing near Albert-gate, the first thing I saw was a vivid flash of flame rising to a great height in the air. This was followed an instant after by a terrific crash or burst of sound. Then came a sudden wave movement of the air which it is impossible to describe. My first impression was that the magazine at St. John's Wood Barracks hd exploded. I walked quickly down towards the North Gate. At the time I got there the sight was most grand. A great column of flame, a foot and a half in diameter, was rising on the town side of the canal from the gas there which was escaping from a broken pipe, and had become ignited.

A crowd hurried down to the scene of the disaster. Policemen, firemen, and a few soldiers joined the general rush, and long before six o'clock the locality was surrounded by excited and anxious citizens.

A number of men were got together shortly, and operations were begun for recovering the bodies of the dead, the wounded having already been taken off to hospital.

Later in the day the work of removing the broken bridge was actively carried on. Immense throngs of people gathered on both sides of the canal, but were kept at a considerable distance from the centre of operations by a well-organized staff of police.

It is impossible to do more than guess either at the cause of the explosion or the extent of the damage done. A spark from the tug steamer may have trickled through an imperfect canister or the crevices of a case, and so have laid a train for the explosion. As to the amount of damage done, it must be estimated by hundreds of thousands of pounds. One of the most remarkable features of the occurrence, and one that must be regarded as little less than providential, is the comparatively small destruction of human life. Had the explosion taken place in a spot where houses border the banks more closely than at Regent's park, where the nearest is a hundred yards off, the consequences must have been serious. 'The dip' at this particular spot, as already remarked, saved a very considerable section of the metropolis and its inhabitants.

NEW SYNAGOGUE IN LIVERPOOL.

THE CONSECRATION.

The new synagogue in Prince's-road was consecrated yesterday by the Rev. Dr. N. Adler, chief rabbi. The church was filled with a fashionable congregation, the Mayor being amongst those present. The cost of the building will be about £13,000, towards which amount Mr. David Lewis contributed £1,000, Mr. Silvestre Samuel £1,000, Mr. R. H. Samuel £700, Mr. A. Hoffnung £500; the bazaar held on behalf of the object realizing £2,500. Accommodation will be afforded for about 800 worshippers, the beautiful marble pulpit was presented by Mrs. Brahin; a handsome perpetual light, by Mrs. David Lewis; a rich curtain for the ark, by Mr. Hoffnung; a scroll with mantle and bells complete, by Mr. A. S. Levy; another by Mr. Ehrenbacher, and a pair of bells by Mr. Cowan. The ministers appointed for the Church are the Rev. M. Joseph, preacher; and the Rev. J. Prag, reader.

The consecration service was very short, but of an imposing character. The Chief Rabbi, followed by the wardens, bore the scrolls of the law to the door of the synagogue, and there the Chief Rabbi repeated in Hebrew the words, 'Open unto me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them and praise the Lord!" As soon as the doors of the synagogue had been opened the Chief Rabbi and others entered with the scrolls, and the reader chanted, "How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel. O Lord, I have loved the habitations of thy house and the dwelling place of thy glory. We will come into thy tabernacles and worship at thy footstool." The procession then moved slowly towards the east end of the synagogue until it arrived at the ark, during which the reader and the choristers sang "Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord," &c., after which the Chief Rabbi and those following him passed round the synagogue seven times, a special psalm being chanted during each circuit. This in reality formed the whole of the consecration service; and as soon as the seven circuits had been completed the ark was opened, and the scrolls of the law deposited therein, the reader and choristers meanwhile chanting the 29th Psalm.

The Chief Rabbi then ascended the pulpit and delivered a sermon. Taking as the foundation of his sermon the words—"It is none other but the house of God, the gate of heaven," he observed that these were the words which Jacob their forefather exclaimed when he awoke after sleeping on a narrow stone, and looked to the spacious vault of heaven. These were words, too, which they (the congregation) would also proclaim in their hearts.

After the sermon the Chief Rabbi offered up a consecration prayer, and the Rev. Morris Joseph afterwards fetched a scroll out of the ark, and having gone back to the reading desk, said the usual prayer for the Queen and the Royal Family. The remainder of the service was then proceeded with, and the congregation dispersed.

In the evening a banquet was held in St. George's Hall. There were about 300 ladies and gentlemen present. The Rev. Dr. Adler (Chief Rabbi) and Mrs Adler, Mr H L Keeling (London), Mr Edwd. Samuelson, Major Greigg, Messrs. L S Cohen, Baron L Benas, E R Russell, M Hesse, M Beddington (London), M Ranger, G S Yates, R H Samuel, A Wolf, S Hess, W Audsley, G Audsley, Schonstadt, R Robinson, D Lewis, Rev. Professor Prag, Rev. Dr Stern, Rev. Morris Joseph, etc.

After grace had been said,

The Chairman, in proposing the toast of the Queen, observed that to say the Jewish people were loyal was simply to assert that the sun shone brilliantly at noontide in a cloudless sky (hear, hear). Their loyalty was not only a guiding sentiment of their faith, and was strongly inculcated by those wise sages whose teachings and writings they revered, but it was the very essence of their nature (applause)—and it might safely be inferred that a nation which was so distinguished for its loyalty to its religion, and so faithful to its most sacred family ties and domestic duties, would surely be loyal to the gracious Queen under whose wise and benignant reign they had enjoyed the fullest benefit of their religious rights and political privileges (hear, hear). He confidently predicted that when the history of the reign of Queen Victoria came to be written, one of its first and brightest pages would be the record of those wise and just measures which had granted religious and political freedom to the Jewish people (applause).

The toast was drunk with enthusiasm.

The Chief Rabbi was warmly applauded on rising to respond to his health. Speaking of the synagogue which he had consecrated that afternoon, he said he was much struck with the beauty of the structure, which combined simplicity and architectural taste; and especially was he pleased with the ark, which was indeed splendid (hear, hear, and applause). They had erected for themselves in this prosperous town—the modern Tyre, the queen of commercial cities—a monument which would vie with their other splendid public edifices (hear), and he hoped and trusted that the inward spirit would correspond with the external beauty, that the congregation would continue their public services according to orthodox principles (applause), and that they would be united with their co-religionists in charitable and educational institutions (applause).

The remaining toasts were: 'The Town and Trade of Liverpool,' 'The Visitors,' 'The Press' (coupled with the names of Mr. E. R. Russell, editor of the Post, and the representative of the Jewish Chronicle), and 'The Ladies.'

The subscriptions promised in the room towards the £1500 still required amounted to £1000.

The party broke up shortly before twelve o'clock.

THE SITUATION.

FORTIETH DAY.

At 7 o'clock on Sunday morning the revolutionary squadron composed of the gunboat Parana and the war-steamer Rivas (formerly Montevideo) shewed itself in the outer roads, carrying the Argentine flag astern and a red flag at the main. It seems, according to the Nacional, that the Government gunboat and war-steamers were aground. At 1 p.m. the enemy steamed in to the Pozos, and the beach and passenger wharf were soon crowded with spectators; after an hour the Paraná and Rivas again left port steering eastward. The Nacional says the Government steamers are ready to take the field. The War Minister was all Saturday night in the Capitania, and on Sunday morning went aboard the fleet.

At 1 p.m. on Sunday took place the ceremony of blessing 4 National Guard flags, the sponsors being Governor Barros, Minister Basavilbaso, Minister Del Valle, and General Meyer. The Governor harangued the 4 battalions, under command of Colonels Solier, Olmos, Escalante and Major Lascano, which fired off a salute on the occasion.

According to Government advices Colonel Luis Campos was to enter Dolores on Sunday; Col. Julio Campos was at Guerrero station, midway between Dolores and Chascomus; and General Rivas was near Tuyu, where General Mitre landed on the previous Monday, from Maldonado, having left Montevideo in the steamer Italia on Friday 23rd, and transhipped at Maldonado to his own vessels. Letters from Montevideo say that he paid his men at Tuyú in sovereigns.

Ex-Governor Villanueva of Mendoza, left town on Sunday for Mendoza, to aid the Governor, if necessary.

The various physicians and surgeons for the northern, western, and southern corps d'armée also left town on Sunday for their various destinations.

Col. Cordero, on board the Anita, made a cruise in port early on Sunday morning, and saw the enemy's fleet only two miles off.

D. Demetrio Alsina, who had been prisoner in Azul, arrived in town on Sunday.

A collision occurred on the Rio Cuarto Railway between two trains: several waggons were smashed and some few persons wounded. Affairs in Cordoba are so bad that the Government and Municipality are compelled to suspend the school pensions and the schools are to be closed.

Cordobese latest papers say that a portion of Colonel Rocca's division, say 1500 men, have reached a place called Piña de San Luis, and are well mounted. The Governor of Cordoba left that city to visit Col. Rocca.

Col. Luis Campos writes from Rauch, Oct. 28th (Wednesday), that he has occupied that place with 1500 men. He says the Indians are doing much damage, that in one place he saw 2,000 dead sheep, lanced by them.

D. Nicolas Alvarez presented the Governor of Santa Fe with 24 horses, to be forwarded to Col. Rocca's army.

The Razon of Tucuman mentions the arrival of Col. Perez Millan with 300 men of the 12th Cavalry.

The paper of Santiago del Estero, according to the Tribuna, attacks the National Government ever since the accession of Dr. Avellaneda.

The notes dated October 10th and 17th exchanged between the Governors of Tucuman and Santiago are very sharp. The former charges Governor Ibarra with winking at armed inroads into the Province of Tucuman, which the latter repels, but adds that revolutions against Santiago are hatched at Tucuman, and a paper called the Razon attacks the Santiago Government, while said paper is supposed to be inspired by the Government of Tucuman. The Tribuna says the quarrel has been settled by telegrams of President Avellaneda.

Minister Alsina has formed a new department in the War-office, exclusively for telegraph service, under the care of Messrs. Turdera and Gueselaya.

Colonel Nadal telegraphed on Sunday, November 1st, from Guerrero station, on the Southern Railway, as follows:

"When our army reached Dolores we had a brush with two or three hundred of the enemy, of whom we killed seven and captured others. I leave for Dolores at 7 p.m."

The Tribuna says that Gen. Meyer is to take the field at once. Also that the Government is determined to punish any excesses by National Guards like those committed in Calle Piedad.

The port is not closed on account of the visit of the enemy's vessels, as was rumored

The Municipality gave a lunch to the officers of the garrison on Sunday. In the evening the Governor also gave a banquet.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Up a tree! As all hope has vanished for another Montevidean loan in London the Legislature are required by President Ellauri to provide means for keeping the machinery of Government going during the months of November and December. The Customs-returns for the whole of 1874 shew a great decline. Accountant General Villalba says the state is out-at-elbows with a deficit of 1,700,000$, including 320,000$ annual guarantee to the Central Uruguay. He recommends President Ellauri to sell the Old Market and the Barracks, and to repudiate the Central Uruguay Guarantee as the engines are not able to do the traffic. He calculates the Barracks will fetch 500,000$ (say £105,000 sterling), and with the Old Market it will nearly meet the deficit, leaving only a small sum due to the German Bank on account of advances for the intended Perez Gomar loan.

The splendid French steamer Senegale entered Montevideo on Saturday, bringing European telegrams to the 25th, and English papers to the 5th ult. Things in Spain are still in the wildest mess. All the reports about the Carlists deserting, shooting their officers and 'finishing' an unfortunate English newspaper man are pure moonshine. The great battle is still 'in nubibus,' and the Spanish papers on the Government side have raised a chorus for foreign intervention against the Carlists. The Times says there isn't a ghost of a chance of it; and even Germany has declared that she has no intentions of the kind. Immediate elections, it is said, have been decided on, and that the result is certain to be in favor of Don Alfonso, son of Queen Isabella. A sensational rumor from the Old World is of an alliance between France and Russia. Bosh! Still another is that Germany wants to buy a 'pied a terre' on the coast of Mexico. Most unlikely. In any case the U. States would object. Nana Sahib, the sanguinary leader of the Indian Mutiny, has been captured. The revolution here was known in London on the 1st ult, and our own Correspondent, (who had just returned from 'doing' Mont Blanc) writes us on the 3rd just one line to say that in the City on that day it was still considered a 'canard.' It has not affected our securities much, as the latest telegrams to October 24th give Argentine stock at 92. The fizzle about the Prince of Wales's debts is over. His Royal Highness only owes £40,000, a mere fleabite, which he is paying off from his capital.

The appearance of the revolutionary vessels, the Parana and Montevideo, in the Outer Roads on Sunday morning imparted a flavour to the Situation, as it was expected that a fight would come off instanter. Hundreds rushed to the beach with telescopes and opera glassss, and the azoteas were crowded. Unfortunately Admiral Pampero held the river and swept it so bare of water that the Government fleet was left almost high and dry, and could not budge an inch, though the Nacional says it is fully prepared for fighting. Yesterday Admiral Pampero was in still greater force, and the oldest inhabitant does not remember the river so low; for a great distance out there was not water enough to float a bumboat. From the seat of war in the South there is nothing fresh. "As you were!" seems to be the position of all parties. The weather is miserable for campaigning.

The various churches in town were largely attended yesterday by crowds in mourning, going to offer prayers for All Souls. The Recoleta church was the most crowded of all; it was superbly decorated, and the ceremonies very impressive.

The presentation of banners to the Reserve Battalions of National Guards on Sunday attracted a numerous, gay and fashionable assemblage to Plaza Victoria. The fair sex mustered in great force and magnificent 'toilettes.' Governor Barros addressed the troops with his usual fire and eloquence, and both the Ministers followed, also Col. Meyer.

To-morrow week, the 11th will be a holiday, the Feast of Saint Martin, who, as everyone knows, was uncle of Saint Patrick.

Baron Hofer, Austro-Hungarian Chargé d'Affaires, has received despatches from Vienna raising him to the rank of Minister Resident. After the treaty with Austria concluded by Admiral Petz in 1870, and subsequently ratified by both Governments, it was resolved in Vienna to open diplomatic relations with the River Plate, and for this purpose Baron Hofer was transferred from Constantinople to Buenos Ayres. We understand that the news of his promotion has been well received among his colleagues, with whom he is a great favorite.

The news about that plague of plagues, the Locusts, is not at all encouraging. They have done fearful mischief in Cordoba and Santa Fe, and have spread to Entre Rios. The Anales de Agricultura of the 1st has for frontispiece a sketch of these awful insects settling on a wheat field. We also recommend to estancieros the sketch and description of the new wood and wire fencing, invented by Mr. Speakman of Philadelphia, and which has obtained astonishing patronage from the great farmers in the Western States. It looks on paper the strongest and neatest fence we have seen yet, and the Anales strongly recommends it to our farmers in the Plate.

Letters from Tucuman report a great demand for labour of all kinds up there. This is good news for immigrants.

The remains of the late Mr James Black were conveyed to their last resting place, in the British Cemetery, on Sunday, attended by a numerous concourse of the English residents.

In another column will be found full particulars of a terrific gunpowder explosion in London, on the Regent's Canal. The accident occurred at daybreak, or the list of killed would certainly have been appalling. As it was, only three persons were killed, one an old woman from fright. For three miles from the scene the ravages of the explosion were felt.

Here's something nice for our lady subscribers and 'spoons' of the ugly sex:

"Sentimental Arithmetic.—Sentimental arithmetic calculates thus:—Two glances make one look; two looks make one sigh; four sighs make one waltz; three waltzes make one palpitation; two palpitations make one call—two calls make one attention; two attentions make one fool (sometimes two); two fools make one flirtation; one flirtation plus two bouquets equal to one engagement, equal to one marriage."

Dear Daws was in the field at daybreak yesterday with all the latest English Irish and Scotch papers, illustrated etc, to 5th October. List for English papers for 1875 closes on the 10th inst,

We believe Sunday last was the day for holding the Municipal elections all over the province, but suspect that nobody remembered anything about it. 'Tant mieux.' We have had enough of electioneering this year to last for a long time.

Those who have friends or relatives serving in the National Guards, now in the field, can send letters for them to the office of the Comandancia General de Armas, in this city, whence they will be forwarded with all despatch.

The Revd. John B. Leahy, of Carmen de Areco, is now on a short visit to town; he reports everything very quiet and peaceable in that quarter.

The President of the Republic has appointed Mr. Adolfo Buttner C.E. to the post in the bureau of National Engineers left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Dahlquist.

Turner, the painter, was a ready wit. Once at a dinner of artisis and literary men a minor poet, by way of being very facetious, proposed as a toast "The health of the painters and glaziers of Great Britain." The toast was drunk, and Turner, after returning thanks for it, proposed "The health of the British paper-stainers." The laugh was loud against the poet."

A Tennesse lawyer who resorted to the insanity dodge in behalf of his negro client, and expatiated at some length upon the absolute idiocy of the poor fellow, met with some opposition from the darkey himself, who exclaimed "You can hang me, or send me to de penitenchry, or say I'se a rascal, but, mister, please don't say I'se fool agen."

Our pushing friends Bowring and Co. (Standard Book Store) delivered the latest London papers to the 4th October, and Irish papers to 3rd Oct. to their numerous subscribers yesterday. By the bye, their latest arrivals of novels, such as have not been offered for sale in B A before, are selling fast. To our musical readers, a word—If you have not been to our musical literary librarian (Standard Book Store) stand not on the order of going, but go at once and see his assortment of Musical Treasures just out; they are gems of the best composers, songs, duets, &c. with pianoforte accompaniments, and the price is ridiculously low—five paper dollars each. Bowring's the man for our money.

A colleague announces the arrival at Rio Janeiro of the great German composer, Offenbach, and that he may shortly be expected in the River Plate.

We strongly recommend our subscribers living on the Flores Road not to try sheep-farming, even on the smallest scale. A very intimate friend of ours, who laid in a small flock of the primest mutton-making breed in the country during the beefsteak crisis, had fifteen of them worried to death by dogs a few nights ago. Not a trace of the marauding curs can be found, but all the dogs in the neighborhood of his quinta have a hang-dog, guilty look about them, and he gives warning to any of his neighbors who may be thinking of 'going in' for sheep to any greater extent than the nearest butcher can supply.

The Republica proposes that the Municipality, being so monstrously hard-up, should 'raise the wind' by imposing heavy fines on all cartmen who overload and ill-treat the poor horses under them. As every cartman in town does this, the pecuniary result would soon set the Corporation up again, if the fines were rigorously imposed and enforced. Who is to do this? Not the police, for, as a rule, the 'vigilantes' are not humane, and stand by on the broad grin while a horse is being ill-used in a way that would bring the by-standers on the offender in any other country. A dozen or two superior detectives, in plain clothes, could work wonders in enforcing reform of an abuse which is a disgrace to Buenos Ayres, so notorious and universal has it become.

When visiting an old acquaintance, a farmer, at a time when albums were all the rage, a well-known wit was handed by the daughter a superannuated account book, ruled for pounds, shillings and pence, in which he was requested to write something pretty for her, with which request he complied in the following manner—

	s.	d.
This world's a scene as dark as Styx,
Where hope is scarce worth	2	6
Our joys are borne so fleeting hence
That they are dear at	18
And yet to stay here many are willing,

The following telegrams regarding the B. Ayres revolution appear in the Diario of Lisbon, Oct. 9th:—

"B. Ayres, Oct. 3rd.—Some commercial houses have suspended payments. A crisis prevails. The Argentine Bank is closed. The Government partisans tried to take the English steamer Yerba; the Captain protested, whereupon the authorities revised the mail-bags. The rebel vanguard is at Riba, just outside the city.

"B. Ayres, Oct. 5th.—There are hopes of an arrangement, Avellaneda resigning the Presidency. The commercial crisis continues. Alsina and Caiza resigned their commands of the troops. A battle is expected. The authorities continue to take severe measures.

"B. Ayres, Oct. 6th.—Goverment asked the Provincial Legislature for 2 millions pats. for the war. The crisis continues. A skirmish occurred outside town, the Government troops falling back. It is rumored that the leaders on the opposing sides are negotiating.

Owing to the Government order stopping the steamers leaving port a petition was sent to the Minister of War, and at a late hour it was announced that one of the steamers had got permit to go, thus the letters at the Capitania.

This shows well for the banks:—

3 salt sales in Montevideo are reported.
Anna Barrabina, at 11 rls.
Massone, for Fray Bentos 13 rls.
Ballista, for Roman 13½.

The week opened stilly enough in a war point of view with the rebel gunboats under our very nose in the Pozos. The river, however, was so low on Sunday and yesterday that the Government vessels were all aground: people watched with anxiety the rising of the river, but the stiff norwester continued and blew every drop of water down to Montevideo; the result was there could be no naval engagement.

The Bolsa was crowded to-day with new arrivals. Mr. Oostendorp of Antwerp was very warmly welcomed on 'Change by his numerous friends after an absence of a year and a half from the Plate. We are indebted to Mr. Oostendorp for the latest Lisbon paper which states that the revolution in B. Ayres is all over, having been arranged amicably. Even European papers make blunders at times. Mr. Fallenstein, Mr. Robert Peltzer and Mr. Oosterich were also duly welcomed. We hear Mr. Peltzer will start as broker.

The news from Entre Rios this morning was most unfavorable; letters from Gualeguay and other parts announce an invasion of locusts which has caused the greatest alarm amongst the estancieros up there. It seems that in the Banda Oriental and in Corrientes the locusts have also made their appearance; at one place in Entre Rios the people turned out en masse to destroy and beat them away; let us all hope that the locusts will come no nearer, misfortunes never come alone; the locusts on the top of the revolution would cap the country's sorrows.

The French packet Senegal's mails were delivered on Sunday, won to that she has brought out a very heavy passenger list, 660 passengers. The revolution happily proves no check to our emigration arrivals.

The Union Argentina in its leading article on Saturday night insists that the Directors of the National Bank and of the Argentine Bank are responsible to the shareholders for whatever losses they may have sustained through any bad management on the part of the board. The assertion of our colleague is most serious, but we very much doubt if it is correct, and if the courts decided so, it would be a very difficult task to get responsible men to fill the post of Directors. The extraordinary severity of our colleague towards the National Bank is attributed to purely political motives. In business and commerce politics should never be allowed to enter, and the less we allow politics to mix up with banks, discounts, exchange and finance in general the better for the market in general.

The National Government is called upon by the board of the National Bank to pay up its quota on the shares standing in the name of the National Government; nothing more proper; why should the public be asked to pay a call and the Government not? We certainly had supposed that the Government had paid the call 100,000 pats. long. ago. as many of the shareholders have done.

Saturday closed the Provincial Session, but it seems we can't get along without a legislature and the Government is about to convoke a special session for the discussion of many pending bills of importance. Query what has become of the Boulevard Bravo scheme?

Senegal telegrams announce that the Argentine Government is trying to make a new loan in London; this must be an error; the papers have got hold of the Provincial Huergo Loan which is still 'in pendens'.

We suppose, we may regard it as a sign of a slight let up in affairs the opening of the theatres. The Victoria will throw open its doors in a few days; better this than the debtors' prison, yet with blood, and fire and ruin outside people will be in no great humour to go to theatres, unless we could get up a good political pantomime which would take amazingly. The fact stands, however, that all last year during the worst months of the crisis our theatres were always full.

On Saturday some unfortunate gentleman lost a pocket book with 60,000 m/c., and one of our colleagues asks who is the lucky finder, evidently he says, not a newspaper man. This smakes a peculiar morality. Some years ago, an editor picked up near the Bolsa 10,000 pats. which he carried to the office of the loser; there was nothing peculiarly lucky in the adventure save on the part of the loser, who had indeed a touch of STANDARD luck about his money when it fell into the hands of "newspaper man".

There is great talk in the market about a Mr. Duffy, who came up the other morning from Montevideo, was arrested on the Mole as a revolutionary agent, and a lot of papers and National Bank notes found on him. Duffy is certainly not a French name, but it appears the prisoner only assumed this name in order, we suppose to pass off as an honest, rich, innocent sheep farmer.

The Senegal is the first steamer that has brought us news from Europe since the news of the Buenos Ayres revolution has reached London. The Times of 2nd October gives the following telegram, the first alarm:—

"BUENOS AYRES.

"Pernambuco, Oct. 1st.

"Intelligence received here states that an insurrection has broken out in B. Ayres. General Mitre commands the insurgents. The rising is caused by alleged fraudulent practices at the election of the future President."

Our own special London correspondent who had just arrived back from Switzerland sends us the following:—

"Huergo still waiting for dispatches from B Ayres to readjust the Western Railway loan; raising money on debenture being impossible under the well known circumstances. The probable price of issue will be nearer 85 than 95. Great alarm at a telegram from Pernambuco announcing insurrection in B. Ayres headed by Mitre. Believed to be a bola."

The papers from Cordoba announce the liquidation of the branch of the Argentine Bank in that city, the manager did all he could to make both ends meet and paid cash for his notes as long as he could, he held letras and pagares in his cartera to the amount of 260,000 pats. but could collect nothing, and shut his door when his specie was all gone save 10,000 pats. The Cordoveso Government has published a decree ordering the liquidation of the branch.

On Saturday three river steamers entered port all bringing specie; the Villa del Salto from Montevideo brought up gold to two houses here, the Uruguay and Proveedor also brought a long list of specie consignments, and we note that the Proveedor also brought 177 marks silver.

It is announced on 'Change that a new private bank has been started at Gualeguay, Entre Rios; hard times these for starting a bank, and particularly in Entre Rios, where depositors are gloomily looking forward to the opening of the shut up Entre Rios Bank. The new concern, however, may succeed, as it will be managed by the owner of the bank himself.

The auctioneers are now busy selling damaged printing paper; to-day Babbin & Plowes sell the STANDARD bales damaged in the Sheffield, to-morrow Ruano sells in Montevideo another consignment of STANDARD printing paper damaged in the Nithsdale, and next week we suppose we shall sell another damaged lot of 20 bales; the luck is they are all insured, and we always keep a good supply on hand.

Fn Wednesday Ruano sells in Montevideo:—
1,000 dry B. Ayres hides.
50 bales B. Ayres wool, damaged in Morning Light bound from Buenos Ayres to Antwerp.

The telegrams announce tremendous storms in Europe; the Poitou had to remain 2 days in Gibraltar owing to the gale, on her way out.

The wrecked American barque Asphodel has been sold at auction in Montevideo for 2,070 $f.

NORTH MARKET.

Nov. 2nd.

After a little over a month's pause in our market reports we resume to-day. During October the Plaza Once wore a most wretched appearance, and the only thing going on there was in the evening when a regiment of Santa Fe cavalry every afternoon held the Plaza; things begin to look a shade better now, 4 old bullock carts are anchored in front of Mr. Martinez de Hoz's barraca, and we suppose this means something. The Plaza men begin to look a little more buoyant, and since the goods trains come in have got a spring in their heel that shows something is going on. To-day we report—

New wool arrivals continue, and this morning about 6,000 ar. sold, buyers more numerous and increased interest in the article. Maize large arrivals and weak. Wheat few arrivals. Flour Looking down.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND CO
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keept one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very lrge amount.

Those advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed intais city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting theirsavings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spenuing them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other novelties.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of thisctiy, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1862.

E. DE LAS CARRERAS.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds one-five housand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

CELEBRATED SHEEP-DIP,
LICOR DERMATOSICO.

PREPARED BY

TORRES & CO., Druggists,

DEFENSA, 65, 67 and 69.

Guaranteed Infallible for the Cure of Scab in Sheep.

After long and innumerable trials, we have succeeded in preparing the above Sheep-Dip, by the use of which we guarantee the thorough eradication of Scab in Sheep.

Besides cheapness and easy application, it has the great advantage over all other similar preparations of being a circumstance which admits of our liquid penetrating to the very surface of the skin, without spotting the wool or making it adhere.

NOTABLE

Remate Judicial,

DE LA

Esplendida Casa,

Perteneciente a la Testamentaria,
Del finado Señor D. ENRIQUE OCHOA,
Situada en esta Capital,

Calle Reconquista, Nums 75, 77 y 79.

Por nombramiento de los intersados y autorizacion del Sr. Juez de 1.ª instancia en lo civil, Dr. D. Miguel Garcia Fernandez, el 9 del entrante mes de Noviembre, a las tres de la tarde, venderemos a quien mas diere y dinero de contado, la importante finca arriba mencionada, cuyos componentes son.

TERRENO.

Mide quince metros 166 milimetros de frente al Oeste, igual a 17 y ½ varas, por 47 metros 25 milimetros de fondo, igual a 55 varas, formando una area total de 962 y ½ varas cuadradas.

EDIFICIO.

Se compone de dos cuerpos, bajo y alto; el primero con dos almacenes a la calle, doce piezas, dos escaleras, tres zaguanes, y tres grandes patios, cochera, caballeriza, aljibe, un entrepiso, para sirviente, deposito de pasto y granero dos zotanos independientes, para depositos de vinos el uno y de carbon el otro, &, &.

El segundo cuerpo es compuesto de una gran sala, ante-sala, dos gabinetes, once piezas, comedor, despensa, un hermoso mirador, &, &.

Todo el edificio es en cal; los pisos, de piedra Inglesa en los patios, y de madera en las piezas; entrepiso de dos hiladas de ladrillo y madera; techos de dos hiladas y baldosa, con tirantes y alfajias de madera dura rebocques de cal al interior y esterior; cielos razos de yeso y de madera; galerias de hierro; techumbre del primer patio de hierro y cristales; baranca de hierro en las azoteas; primera escalera y puertas y ventanas de las habitaciones principales, de caoba marisa; las demas puertas y ventanas exteriores, de riquisimo cedro, y las interiores, de pino.

Esta propiedad ha sido avaluada infimamente en 2,430,000$ como se vera en seguida:

Terreno	$1,000,000
Albañileria en general	935,000
Carpinteria id	250,000
Herreria id	150,000
Pintura y empapelado id	95,000
Total	$2,430,000

Si bien el ramo de albañileria y demas accesorios del edificio han sido estimados equitativamente, no lo ha sido asi el terreno, pues este, sin duda alguna, comprado con otros que han sido vendidos en las inmediaciones, vale proximamente dos millones quientos mil pesos.

En esta virtud, y en atencion a lo bajo de la avaluacion total, el Sr. Juez ha dispuesto que sirva esta como base minima para abrir el Remate.

La ubicacion de la finca en venta, en uno de los barrios mas importantes de esta Capital, y su comoda y elegante construccion, adaptable a Bancos, Grandes Hoteles, Compañias de Seguros y otros establecimientos que pagan crecidos alquileres, y entre cuyo radio se encuentra el fundo a rematarse; nos hace esperar que obtendremos por el un precio mucho mayor al reducido de su tasacion.

Esta propiedad a no dudarlo podra producir de 22 a 25,000 pesos de renta mensual.

El interesado que guste inspeccionarla, podra hacerlo cualquier dia antes del remate de 9 a 10 de la mañana o de 5 a 6 de la tarde.

Para mas pormenores a la Escribania del Sr. DEAGUSTINI, bajo el Cabildo; o al Escritorio de los Rematadores,
